Dear Harold:

Enclosed is a copy of my review of Lifton's Best Evidence. Apparently feeling the need to update the piece, the editors removed my lead and substituted the first three grafs on Eddowes. I don't know if its accurate or even relevant to Lifton's book, but I hope that what is mine is accurate.

For your infommation, the publication in which the review appeared is primarily a feature-oriented biweekly with a circulation of about 20,000.

Again, Harold, thanks very much for the time you took to help me with this. Because I realize you are always very busy, no need to respond.

Hope you are well and having some success with the embattled FOIA.

Best Wishes,

George
